Comments:

Striven recently had a release that included a new Search which is leaps and bounds better than our previous one. Not only is it faster but I can find results much easier by searching by keywords. A great example of this is I was recently trying to find a previous release's notes so I can share some specifics about the Portal with a co-worker. Before the new Search, I had pretty much given up after searching for far too long with no luck. After the new Search was released however, this was the first thing I tried to find and I had found it within seconds. Amazing! Thanks so much to all the work Sanjog and Henry put into the new Search. You guys did a fantastic job!
